STATE HIGH SCHOOL HOSTS IN COMPETITION

State Contests Are Under Way For Two Days

Hundreds Of Students Are Competing For Music And Forensic Awards

SEVEN BUILDINGS
USED FOR EVENTS

Schedule Is Being Carried
Out Excellently—Dance
Tonight For Guests

By bus and train and private cars, a student army captured New Castle Thursday night and this morning, with the influx continuing until early this afternoon. The fourteenth annual state contests of the Pennsylvania Forensic and Music League began at nine o'clock this morning and will continue through Saturday afternoon. Senior high school, the headquarters of the contest presents the usual hubbub of a convention headquarters. Competitors, visitors, officials and aides have the lobby jammed but the confusion is a pleasant one.

Seven Buildings
Seven buildings are being used for the contests in vocal and instrumental music and in forensic activities, the Cathedral, the senior high school, the George Washington and Benjamin Franklin junior high schools, the Highland, McGill and North Street grade schools.

Each building has its share of the host of boys and girls in the city for the contest. Bandsmen and band girls in their gay uniforms, students from nearly all of the counties of the state chattering as high school students have always chattered.

PA NEW OBSERVES

City traffic squads are busy touching up the yellow parking band areas along downtown curbs.

Early lawn mowing season records will probably go by the boards with this spring's mark. Many lawns have already been cut, and indications are that the season will be in full blast at most every property before another week has passed.

Unusually warm weather of the week or so has brought on the blossoms on many of the trees of the city and surrounding areas. There is some fear that a belated frost may occur and play havoc with the fruit prospects for the season.

Motorists returning from central Ohio, report that the vegetation and other growth is somewhat in advance to ours in this district. Lawns and golf courses were beautifully green, lawns being cut. At Wooster, rhubarb was ready for the first cut, and dandelions were in full bloom.

Pa New is glad to welcome to New Castle the host of high school students, instructors, etc., who are here for the final competition in the State Music and Forensic League. The contests continue through Saturday afternoon. New Castle students have competed in many of the finals in former years, but this is the first year that his city has been host to the district winners in the closing battles. All New Castle hopes that the stay in this city of the school host may be pleasant and enjoyable.

Motor Car And Truck Production To Be Reduced

Twenty Per Cent Cut To Start
On August 1 It Is

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The action of O. P. M. Director William S. Knudsen in obtaining an agreement from the automobile industry to cut motor car production 20 per cent starting August 1 today foreshadowed further government control of industry in the drive to speed up airplane and munitions output for the U. S. and England. At the same time there was wide speculation in official Washington over the wording of Knudsen's announcement. Knudsen said that the entire automobile industry "willingly accepted an initial 20 per cent reduction in the production of motor vehicles for the model year beginning on August 1 this year in order to make available more manpower, materials, facilities and management for the defense load now being made ready."

Defense chiefs were asked whether "initial 20 per cent reduction" meant that there might be more curtailment later. They shrugged, indicating that production might be cut further if it was found to be necessary.

Even the 20 per cent cut, Knudsen estimated, will lead to a drop of 1,000,000 from the estimated output of 5,000,000 cars and trucks for the 1942 model year. The reduction also will save about 1,600,000 tons of steel a year which can be diverted into the manufacture of airplanes, ships, tanks and guns.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Further delay in reopening of the nation's soft coal mines, which have been shut down since April 1, was foreshadowed today as a result of a new complication in the wage negotiations. John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers (U. M. W.), announced the union will not execute the tentative contract agreed upon Tuesday with the northern operators until he can effectuate a settlement with the southern operators who bolted the joint Appalachian wage conference in New York last Friday.

National defense industries may be seriously hampered as a consequence of the new delay in the reopening of the mines. It had been expected that the agreement with LONDON, April 18.—Dropping huge new-type bombs on the center of the city, R. A. F. planes blasted Berlin during the night in the heaviest attack British bombers have made since war began, the air ministry announced today.

The terrific night assault on the German capital followed by only 24 hours the terrific Nazi raid on London, which left still uncounted civilians dead and injured in this bomb-scarred city.

British officials scouted the idea of retaliation and British home secretary Herbert Morrison declared that "we make no hysterical noises about reprisals."

Attack Significant
Nevertheless, it was significant that the latest R. A. F. attack was carried out while demands still resounded in London for a retaliatory "massacre" attack on Berlin.

An air ministry communique showed that the British airmen held back no punches in mauling Berlin with new and more powerful bombs which were used against the German capital for the first time. The communique said:

"A number of powerful bombs were dropped on targets in the center of Berlin."

"Fires immediately broke out. The attack was pressed home and many bursts were seen across the targets."

"Substantial damage certainly was done. Three formations of Blenheim bombers, strongly escorted by several squadrons of fighters, carried out a day attack on Cherbourg yesterday. The enemy was taken by surprise and no enemy fighters engaged our aircraft."

"The weather was clear, which enabled accurate bombing of the docks. All our planes returned."

BERLIN, April 18.—Smashing at the Allied defense lines in Greece, German legions have "annihilated" five Greek divisions in western Macedonia, an official Berlin announcement said today.

The advancing German forces captured "considerable" booty, the statement said.

German military spokesman said the Reich's Panzer legions were forging deadly new pincers as they hammered the Anglo-Greek line in a mighty battle that swelled a broad front between the Olympus and Pindus mountain chains.

Despite bad roads, an official announcement said, German mechanized columns pushed across the mountains into Thessaly and engaged strong detachments of Australians, taking many prisoners.

Large quantities of war material were captured in this advance as well, it was stated.

(International News Service)

KANE, Pa., April 18.—Three children were burned to death early today as a fire of undetermined origin gutted the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Liston, the children's grandparents, at Marienville, about 24 miles south of Kane.

Dead were "Bonnie" and "Buddy" Liston, age ten and seven respectively, and Elizabeth Hepner, nine. The fire started in the frame, two-story building about four a. m. The grandparents, brought to Kane suffering from shock, said they jumped from the second story under the impression that the three children were safely out of the building. William Liston is 71; his wife, 67.

They both sustained bruises from their leap.

Two of the dead youngsters were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Liston, also of Marienville. Authorities said they had no idea as to what may have caused the fire, since they had been told there were no open fires in the building.

ATHEENS, April 18.—Valorous British-Greek troops were forced to withdraw to new defense positions in northern Greece today under an irresistible and ceaseless series of assaults by reinforced German troops who have been seeking for days to crack the Allied line.

Wave after wave of German infantry, strongly supported by mountain artillery and low-flying Stuka bombers, had come steadily to the assault on the Allied right flank near Mt. Olympus in vain effort to roll up the right wing of the British-Greek lines.

Attacks Hurdled Back
Each attack had been hurled back by the desperately fighting defenders, but Nazi advances on the left flank, held by the Greeks, imperiled the entire main defense line, resulting in today's withdrawal by British imperial and Greek forces.

The withdrawal, reportedly carried out in good order, was aimed at establishment of a shorter, more concentrated—and hence more easily defended—line. How far the withdrawal went in terms of miles, was not stated in military advices reaching Athens.

LONDON, April 18.—Destruction of Old World ancient cities—Athens, Rome and Cairo—became a distinct possibility in the spreading fury of the war today.

The British government in an official declaration warned that if the German air force bombed Athens or Cairo, there would be instant retaliation on Rome, although every care would be taken to avoid damage to Vatican City.

The warning came a few hours after the R. A. F. had given Berlin its worst aerial attack of the war.

Three Bombers Shot Down In Berlin Area Claim Of Nazis

FIRES ARE STARTED IN PARTS OF CITY

(International News Service) BERLIN, April 18.—While R. A. F. raiders started fires in Berlin residential districts, "very strong" German bomber formations raided the British naval base at Portsmouth during the night, setting fire to the navy yard arsenal, an official communiqué announced today.

In addition, it was stated, German planes raided other important harbors on the English south coast and attacked "important and industrial objectives" as well as harbors in the north of Scotland.

On the south coast, German authorities said, bombs of all calibers were dropped on targets, causing extensive conflagrations in port facilities, docks and store houses.

Berlin Area Penetrated

A number of British planes penetrated the Berlin area, an official statement said, but only a few pierced through the capital's air defenses.

These dropped incendiary and high explosive bombs that started fires in residential districts and "damaged cultural buildings," according to the communiqué.

Three bombers were shot down by anti-aircraft fire while approaching Berlin, the communiqué said, and two others crashed in flames near the city.

In addition, it was stated, "weak R. A. F. formations" raided northern Germany, dropping both incendiary and explosive bombs but "not causing much damage."

nonagahela and Allegheny rivers, announced they would join in the "blackout." These included Sewickley, Sharpsburg, Etna, Millvale, West Elizabeth and Glassport.

Although the Duquesne Light company will not pull its "master switch" to darken the city, Pittsburgh proper is expected to be as "black" as the limited test conditions will permit.

Planes participating under present plans include three army ships of the 103rd observation squadron at Harrisburg, with seven officers; three ships and six officers of the 104th Observation Squadron at Baltimore; possibly three other planes of the Third Observation Squadron at Langley field, one TWA transport plane and one All-American Airlines airmail pickup ship. The latter, piloted by Major Hal Bazley, will serve as the coordinating ship for the others in the flight.

The "enemy" ships will arrive at the county airport this afternoon. They will cover Allegheny county before the "blackout" rendezvous at 10:10 p. m. over the "point," Bazley said.

eral merchant vessels were attacked, one probably was sunk and another was blown up in a harbor. "Last night bombs were dropped on targets in Holland, including Rotterdam, and on Cologne and a number of places in northwest Germany."

The new assault on Berlin was the 39th of the war and the first since recent R. A. F. raid that blasted the German capital's state opera and Prussian state library and damaged other landmarks up and down the Unter Den Linden.

While the British hammered Berlin, officials revealed, German raiders last night concentrated chiefly on Portsmouth, British south coast seaport and naval base.

Britain's powerful new Sterling bombers were used during last night's raid on Berlin, home secretary Herbert Morrison announced.

STATE CONTESTS ARE UNDER WAY FOR TWO DAYS

tered, chartered buses pulling up to the schools, automobiles running back and forth from headquarters to the schools, all of them give the affair a color and liveliness that is interesting.

The contests are under the sponsorship of the Extension division of the University of Pittsburgh, with C. Stanton Belfour in charge. Mr. Belfour is the secretary of the league and assistant director of the Extension Division of the University of Pittsburgh. He has handled all of the state contests held.

Mr. Belfour was lavish in his commendation of the arrangements here. "We are delighted with the co-operation of New Castle people in this contest," said Mr. Belfour. "Especially do I want to mention Mrs. Marjorie Rhodes Nelson for her executive ability in handling the many details of the contests. The Greater New Castle Association has been most helpful in the matter of accommodations and altogether I believe this contest will be among the best we have ever held."

Early Winners Announced

Before noon today five contests were finished and the winners named. In the senior high school contest the competition for the cup was finished before noon. The winner and state champion of this contest is Emma Jean Hay, of Connellsville, Pa., who rated "Superior" for her performance. Because there were but three entrants in this event only the one award was made. The critic judge of the event was Oscar W. Demmler, special supervisor of instrumental music in the Pittsburgh public schools. The chairman of the event was Miss Leah Viola Thorpe of Harrisburg.

In the Boys' Octet competition, the eight boys representing Coatesville were awarded the championship with a rating of "Excellent." Second place went to Shippensburg and third place to New Wilmington. Each of the latter two being rated "Good." The critic judge of this event was Carroll D. Kearns, head of the Department of Music at Slippery Rock State Teachers' College, a former New Castle man. The chairman was Dr. Claude Rosenberry, director of music education of the Pennsylvania State Department of Public Instruction.

In the competition for baritone and basses, first place went to Franklin Kuykendall of Haverford township, Upper Darby, with a rating of excellent. Second place went to Robert Wright of Uniontown with a rating of excellent and third place to Martin Baldwin of Messiah Bible college, Grantham, with a rating of excellent.

Richard W. Grant, director of college music and professor of music education for Penn State, was the critic judge and John W. Harpster, instructor in history at Erie center, University of Pittsburgh, was the chairman.

In the competition for bassoon solos, first place went to Richard Pike of Redstone township, Republic, with a rating of excellent, and second place went to Donald Lester of Grove City. The critic judge was Hummel Fishburn, associate professor of music, Penn State, and the chairman John B. Boyer, assistant superintendent of schools, Northumberland county.

In the piano solo contest, winners were announced as follows: First, Dorothy Haas, Slippery Rock; second, Glenn Wright, New Holland; third, tie, William Williams, Forty Fort, and Stanton Althouse, Sellersville-Perkasie. Judge in the contest was Dallmeyer Russell, director of the Pittsburgh Music Institute.

Large Undertaking

Conducting a state wide contest such as this is, a task that requires much organization and executive ability. Arranging the contest places and time, securing room accommodations for the visiting students and caring for the multiplicity of detail that attends the meet require many people and the corps of local men and women and boys and girls handling the administrative end of the meet is huge.

In the main the contests are being run off with a minimum of confusion. As could be expected in a group as large as this, not every detail clicks but the surprising part of it is that there is so little error made.

Each year the contests are staged after district contests have been held. The state is divided into eight districts, Northwestern, Southwestern, Western, Central, Southern, Northeastern, Eastern and Southeastern. The contest city is alternated between the east and the west ends of the state. In 1940 the contests were held in Harrisburg and the 1942 contests will be held in some eastern Pennsylvania city.

Adjudicating the contests are men and women of ability from the eastern United States.

Open to Public

The contests are open to the public. Included in the list of events are almost every musical instrument, vocal solos, octets, choruses, orators and debaters.

In order to accommodate the crowd of visitors it was necessary to call upon citizens to open their homes and in usual New Castle style the response was quick to the appeal.

Tonight from 9 to 12 the New Castle Music Council entertains the visiting students with a dance in the Cathedral ballroom. Admission is by registration button.

New Castle today is uniform-conscious. Downtown and everywhere were bandsmen, trim looking in their spic-and-span arrays. All were ready to compete in the particular event in which they've been entered. And all were confident. Milling about until "contest call time," they talked but one thing: The contest.

In the main lobby of senior high school, Lincoln avenue, focal point of all activities, is a huge scoreboard which will announce to the contestant through the winners of all events. Those lucky folks will be posted just as fast as a battery of clerks can tabulate judges' findings.

School teachers are having no holiday—all of them are on key assignments which will keep them engaged throughout today and tomorrow. But Superintendent of Schools C. C. Green and his chief aides, sensing the huge proportions of the contest, had things well organized and ready. That smooths the work a lot.

Housing visitors tonight turned out to be the major task of the two-day affair. Reports say everything "is clicking"—and the housing workers found sleeping accommodations for one group that pulled in long after midnight last night. The latecomers had car trouble on the road.

Back to many towns and cities will go copies of Senior high's mimeographed newspaper, "Ne-Cazette." Editor-in-chief George Stutzinger and his staff had a group distributing the school sheet in the high school lobby.

That welcome red cross of the American Red Cross, a comforting banner in huge crowds, was hung up in one of the main rooms of the Cathedral. Nurses are ready to bring comfort to anyone in distress. Lawrence County chapter executive are in charge.

Tonight comes the dance—the New Castle Music Council will entertain members of the New Castle forensics and music departments and their guests in the Cathedral ballroom from 9 until 12. Admission is by registration button.

Where the 1942 contest will be held will be shortly decided. Leaders say a city in the eastern part of the state will be chosen, but what city hasn't been decided.

up by CBS said the government raid in Athens had broadcast an appeal to the Greek people, urging them to remain calm and adding:

"Despite furious resistance from our forces, supported by the British, the position of the front is unfavorable as the enemy continues to advance. But the public must remain calm. It must not listen to rumors such as have been spread that the enemy is at Larissa, from which town he is still quite a distance away from the front."

Nazis Lose Thousands

On the eastern and center flanks, it was claimed, the Germans have lost tens of thousands of casualties, including the equivalent of two divisions knocked out in one sector alone.

But in Albania on the far western wing, it was admitted officially that Greek troops have staged a withdrawal and abandoned two key towns to attacking Italian troops. The Italians, like the Germans, suffered staggering losses, it was claimed.

The official Athens radio announced that the right wing of the Allied line—between Katerina 25 miles north of Mt. Olympus, and Serbia—was "holding well against a powerful German attack."

"Fierce battles are occurring everywhere," this announcement said. "The enemy, despite his superiority of forces, has received heavy blows. The German force has been extremely active but has suffered great losses."

The official high command communiqué gave little information other than news of the Greek withdrawal on the Albanian front. It said:

"In western Macedonia no essential changes in the situation have occurred."

On the Albanian front certain movements of evacuation have been carried out without impediment. Kibura and Ersek have been evacuated."

Most Serious Stage

A spokesman for the Greek press ministry declared the fighting has entered its most "serious stage" and that "tremendous casualties" have been inflicted on the Germans.

He added that all attacks on the Italian front had been repulsed with heavy enemy losses.

Military advice to Athens said it was reported that massed Nazi infantry and tank attacks had cost the Germans the equivalent of two divisions in casualties in two days of fighting on the right wing and that severe fighting was in progress on the central sector around Grevena.

Along one section of the Allied front, it was claimed, German corpses were heaped so high that enemy soldiers were moving forward "protected by hedges formed by their dead comrades."

up by CBS said the government raid in Athens had broadcast an appeal to the Greek people, urging them to remain calm and adding:

"Despite furious resistance from our forces, supported by the British, the position of the front is unfavorable as the enemy continues to advance. But the public must remain calm. It must not listen to rumors such as have been spread that the enemy is at Larissa, from which town he is still quite a distance away from the front."

Nazis Lose Thousands

On the eastern and center flanks, it was claimed, the Germans have lost tens of thousands of casualties, including the equivalent of two divisions knocked out in one sector alone.

But in Albania on the far western wing, it was admitted officially that Greek troops have staged a withdrawal and abandoned two key towns to attacking Italian troops. The Italians, like the Germans, suffered staggering losses, it was claimed.

The official Athens radio announced that the right wing of the Allied line—between Katerina 25 miles north of Mt. Olympus, and Serbia—was "holding well against a powerful German attack."

"Fierce battles are occurring everywhere," this announcement said. "The enemy, despite his superiority of forces, has received heavy blows. The German force has been extremely active but has suffered great losses."

The official high command communiqué gave little information other than news of the Greek withdrawal on the Albanian front. It said:

"In western Macedonia no essential changes in the situation have occurred."

On the Albanian front certain movements of evacuation have been carried out without impediment. Kibura and Ersek have been evacuated."

Most Serious Stage

A spokesman for the Greek press ministry declared the fighting has entered its most "serious stage" and that "tremendous casualties" have been inflicted on the Germans.

He added that all attacks on the Italian front had been repulsed with heavy enemy losses.

MUSIC IN THE AIR

In very truth there will be music in the air in New Castle today and tomorrow. From every corner of Pennsylvania musicians and orators of the high schools of the commonwealth are gathered here for the final contests of the Pennsylvania Music and Forensic League.

Patterned somewhat along the lines of the Welsh eisteddfod the youngsters will compete against each other for the honor of being named champion of their class.

It is a worth while endeavor and one which New Castle welcomes. The intrinsic value of the honors won will be slight but the satisfaction of leading the state in their various fields is something which the youngsters will cherish all their lives. More, the idea that they may be good enough to compete in the state finals certainly must act as incentive towards better work in music and speech during the school year.

For two days New Castle is host to a group of potentially great musicians and orators. Who can say but that out of the performers today and tomorrow will come another Beethoven, another Caruso, another Stowkowski or another Daniel Webster? Not to mention the possibilities of future Benny Goodman, or Gene Krupa.

New Castle has been host to many educational gatherings but this is the first time it has ever entertained the Pennsylvania Music and Forensic League. The League is doing a worthwhile work in the awakening of interest in music and speech among high school students. New Castle is gratified by the opportunity to have the contests here and proud of its facilities to handle such an affair.

WHAT GERMANY GETS

What are Germany's exactions from conquered countries in the form of money, loot and services? Richard Austen Butler, British undersecretary for foreign affairs, gave the House of Commons the other day an estimate of $5,405,000,000 in a year in the form of goods, labor, rents and all other things of value Germany has received.

Of this France has supplied by far the most to Germany—about $4,000,000,000 a year, or three times the greatest payments demanded of Germany under the reparations plan following the World War. Every Frenchman in the occupied area pays Germany the equivalent of $94 a year.

By the same computation Germany is getting $352,000,000 out of Belgium, $319,600,000 out of Norway, $253,800,000 out of Holland and $130,000,000 out of Denmark each year. This amounts to $117.50 per person annually in Norway, $37.60 in Denmark and $28.20 in Belgium and Holland. There is no estimate on the loot Germany has taken out of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Bulgaria. All in all it must be more than the $7,000,000,000 the United States is making available to Britain.

Of course these occupied countries do not have anything resembling the amounts mentioned in money and most of the loot has been in the form of supplying Germany with more goods than Germany gives back, of conscripted labor and of seized valuables of individuals such as gold and jewelry.

PER CAPITA INCOMES

According to figures released in New York, the average national income per person in 1940 was $546, which in the view of many leaves a great deal to be desired.

Curiously, the highest average per capita is in the District of Columbia, which some persons may take as proof that pickings are better in government service than they are in other walks of life. Connecticut, New York, Delaware and Nevada followed in the order named, with averages ranging from $771 to the $1,179 credited to the District.

The average incomes of the four leading states were: Connecticut, $818; New York, $816; Delaware, $780; and Nevada, $771. Earnings in fifteen states, Massachusetts, California, New Jersey, Illinois, Rhode Island, Wyoming, Ohio, Michigan, Washington, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Oregon, Wisconsin, Montana and Minnesota, exceeded the national average of $546.

Only the District of Columbia, Virginia, South Carolina and Louisiana were able to exceed their 1929 averages. Indiana, Minnesota, North Carolina and Georgia came next, almost equaling their 1929 averages. Mississippi was last in per capita income, with an average of $198.

On a regional basis the Middle Atlantic states led the nation, with an average income of $717. The Pacific states, which have improved most rapidly in this phase, with an average of $692, and the New England states, with $659, come next.

New York continued to lead the field of total income, outdistancing Pennsylvania by a two-to-one margin with its income of $11,000,000,000 of the national figure of $72,000,000,000. After Pennsylvania come Illinois, California and Ohio. Nevada and New Mexico had the smallest total incomes. Every state except Mississippi showed a gain in total income over 1939.

All the American crystal gazers see one thing these days—higher taxation.

The longer this war continues, the fewer the men in the world who understand the money problem.

Uncle Sam's bombsight is said to be the best on earth. What he needs now is an equally good foresight.

One would think that Washington at least could hold the activities of the labor agitators to a 40-hour week.

It is announced that the nation's rubber supply is adequate, which is reassuring. Now it won't be necessary to stretch it.

The more industriously the United States prepares for war the warmer Mexico's new found friendship for Uncle Sam becomes.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

FEARS THAT PLAGUE ADOLESCENT

Mere growth, as Dr. Leta Stetter Hollingworth reminds us, makes some children exceedingly self-conscious; hence many a young adolescent may have intense feelings of inferiority. Some of the "teen years" show very rapid growth. According to the celebrated Dr. T. Wingate Todd, it is for his X-ray studies of child-growth, said that it is no uncommon thing, for example, for a girl, once she passes her twelfth year, to complete the equivalent of three years' skeletal development in a period of six to nine months.

An occasional adolescent grows as much as six inches in height in one year and twenty or thirty pounds in weight. The feet and hands attain a disproportionate size in early adolescence. By the time the boy or girl is thirteen or fourteen these members are about as large as they will ever be. Big hands and long wrists protrude from his sleeves and the pinching shoes he suffers from or the big clumsy looking ones he must wear attract his attention to these sudden changes in himself. He wonders if his growth will ever have an end. The nose seems to grow, too, with feet and hands. About its size the girl, particularly, may have grave concern, spending miserable hours examining it before the mirror. Then if some other member of the family should say a word about it, she is truly unhappy.

The First Shave
When he should start shaving is another question that causes great anxiety in the adolescent boy. Many a lad shaves in hiding for several months because he fears his father or some other older might make fun of him. One youth said: "Several times I slipped off to the basement and shaved with my father's razor until one day, while an uncle was a guest, my father looked at me, after I had shaved, and remarked: 'I see that you have been sharpening my razor on calf-skin,' whereupon my uncle laughed up roars. How I felt I shall long remember."

This is different from a healthier father-son relationship where the lad one day said in a natural straightforward manner, "Dad, if you don't mind I believe I'll shave some of this fuzz off my face."

"Go ahead," the father nonchalantly answered. "If my razor suits you, buy one like it when you care to, or a different one if you prefer." Some adolescent boys have anxiety about the lateness and slowness of beard-growth. A lad of eighteen remarked seriously to another of seventeen, "Gee! You have a fine lot of whiskers; wish I had as good."

Solving Parent Problems

By what principle may we best deal with the handicapped child?
A. Help him learn to live successfully, and feel comfortable, among others who are not handicapped. Direct his attention, as far as possible, away from his handicap to the development of his major possibilities.

Q. Does a winning team justify continuing employment by a public high school of a coach who habitually curses the boys of his team?
A. No; one wonders why parents don't protest against employment of such coaches. Would they tolerate a teacher who cursed children in the classroom?

LET'S PLAY HOOKEY

The green is in the garden and the blue is in the sky.
And deep in me the fever burns to walk away from care,
To be again the reckless boy which long ago was I.
Who heard the school bell ringing and played hookey then and there.

There's bloom in field and meadow and the birds are on the wing.
There's panfish to be landed from a silver bordered stream,
But now it's I am captured, dangling fast on duty's string.
The days of playing hookey long have vanished like a dream.

The fever's burning in me to drop all the books of care,
To hide them in the woodshed, safe from loss and out of view,
To scamper off from study—Oh, I know exactly where—
And give myself to pleasure and the things I like to do.

But I am grown and settled, or at least supposed to be.
The world has long expected me to put such nonsense by.
And I must hide with frowning, so that none shall ever see,
How still at heart a hookey-playing little boy am I.

If a group is talking and one of them is called to the telephone, it is good manners to keep the talk going and not appear to listen to the conversation.

Army officers turn down thousands accepted by local boards. Being subject to call for ten years, a fellow over thirty is too old to waste time on.

Capitol Hill Approves Greenland Deal
Only Ultra-Isolationists Not In Accord
Don't Believe It Is Strictly Defensive

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central Press Columnist
WASHINGTON, April 18—With the exception of ultra-isolationists (decidedly in a minority) congress attitude toward Uncle Sam's establishments of a virtual protectorate over Danish-controlled Greenland is very favorable. Even some of the isolationists say it's all right if it really is a purely defensive move, for they, too, support our defense program. For instance, Senator Warren A. Austin of Vermont, a Republican, reasons that, although it "expands" the Monroe Doctrine, it's within its spirit, since the Doctrine commits the United States to "protection of the western hemisphere's integrity."

Indeed, the isolationist irreconcilables wouldn't object to the expansion if they believed it to be exclusively defensive. But they DON'T believe it. Senator Robert R. Reynolds of North Carolina puts it that, it's a scheme to convey American war supplies half way across the Atlantic—that is, to Greenland, for transshipment in British vessels. And it has, he adds, the advantage, to the administration, of "avoiding use of the word 'convoy,' because that's unpopular."

Nevertheless, generally speaking, congress has the idea of Greenland facilities, fortifications and other conveniences for our armed forces, almost within a biscuit-toss of Germany's proclaimed maritime war zone.

Just the same, it was a queer bargain.

Not a Treaty

It wasn't entered into as a Danish-American treaty. An international treaty, to be validated, requires a two-thirds senatorial endorsement. Illustratively, a few years ago, the executive branch of our government negotiated a treaty with Canada for St. Lawrence waterway development, submitted it to the senate, and did get a small majority but not the necessary two-thirds; so the treaty fizzled. Now the same thing's being attempted again, but not in the form of a treaty. It's in the form of a bargain, to be ratified by the passage of two bills, respectively by our congress and Canada's parliament. Canada's parliament will pass IT'S bill, it's a cinch. And, in our congress, a mere bill doesn't require two-thirds; a bare majority's sufficient. Probably the administration can get it.

Well, as previously remarked, this Greenland arrangement isn't a treaty either. It's a plain bargain. Only it's different from the St. Lawrence bargain, in that it doesn't have to be submitted to any legislative body whatever.

Question: I was invited by a woman to go to a swimming party as the escort of her cousin visiting her at that time. After the party, we had supper and went to a show. All expenses were paid by the host. Should I have offered to pay part of them?—Phil.

Answer: If the invitation included swimming, a show and supper, and you were expected to assume the status of a guest, you were right in allowing him to pay the expenses, since it was the host's and hostess' party. If, on the contrary, the invitation included a swimming party only, the show and supper resulting from a general suggestion after the swim was over, you and the other men of the party should have offered to share the expenses.

In short, there was a deal between Secretary Hull and Minister de Kauffmann, personally. Still, we get our Greenland bases. Immediately on the heels of the Greenland arrangement followed the presidential proclamation opening the Red Sea and the Gulf of Aden, right up to Suez.

This wasn't treaty-work or legislation or anything except a proclamation.

We have a law barring shipment of American cargoes in American ships to belligerent foreign countries. Ah, but these shipments to Suez aren't for delivery in a belligerent country. They're for delivery in Egypt. Who gets 'em subsequently? Britain's forces in Africa or Greece or Yugoslavia or some other democracy? Is none of our business. Hence that proclamation, perfectly legal. Isolationists look on it askance, though.

What Noted People Say

(International News Service)
NEW YORK—William S. Knudsen, director of the office of production management, scores defense strikes.

"When I think of the people abroad hoping for help from the United States to save a piece of the roof over their heads, it makes me blush to think that we over here bicker about silly, small differences which seldom, even after they are settled, mean any gain to anybody."

SALT LAKE CITY—Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana urges that Americans let their heads rather than their hearts control their actions.

"We have been told that the United States can crush Hitlerism—but who can say that we can land troops enough to do this when Hitler can even cross those 22 miles across the English Channel?"

WASHINGTON—Secretary of Navy Frank Knox discloses what he regards as the best countermeasure to strikes in defense industries.

"The most effective weapon we have is public opinion."

Subotage: Any act that halts production and endangers our country, unless it is called a strike.

Pretty Good So Far

WASHINGTON, April 18. IN view of previous criticism, common fairness compels the statement that the President's new labor mediation board has made an excellent record up to now. At the moment there is but one serious strike looming and it has succeeded in settling those which most seriously threatened the defense program.

THIS does not mean that the board will not have some very prickly problems with which to deal before the labor situation is really straightened out. It does mean that its performance has been considerably better than was expected and that the character of the setup gave reason to hope. Credit for this is primarily due to the chairman, Dr. Clarence Dykstra of Wisconsin.

DR. DYKSTRA adopted the one course by which results could be obtained. He did not attempt to negotiate or mediate with his whole board, which is not only an exceedingly awkward and cumbersome agency but has been so "balanced" by the President, with his four employers offset by four professional paid labor leaders, as to render unanimity practically impossible if the full membership tries to function.

WHAT the chairman very sensibly did was to set up a committee within the board and put the job up to it. Where he showed his real ability was in picking the right men for the committee. By so doing he not only insured against a deadlock but made sure of getting a settlement. It was the committee which went into action, dug up the facts, brought the warring factors together and found the common denominator. All the board did was to ratify the action of the committee—and the more conspicuous of its labor leaders were not on the committee because they were behind the strikes with which the committee was dealing.

IT was a mistake for the President to put on the board these paid professionals, who were engaged in promoting the very strikes they were supposed to settle, and but for the skill of Dr. Dykstra in operating on the committee plan the whole business of mediation might have been futile. As things stand, the President (Continued On Page Eleven)

The World and the Mud Puddles

IT'S A HARD LIFE.

Another American newspaperman, stationed in Rome, has offended the sensibilities of Il Duce and been ordered to pack his bags and go home.

The expulsion from Italy of John Whitaker, Chicago Daily News foreign correspondent, marks the second time within five months that an American newspaperman has been ordered to leave that country.

In this, as in several previous cases, the charge is that "the general tone of the dispatches was displeasing." This establishes the curious standard of reporting in authoritarian regimes—a standard which such regimes not only apply to their own newspapers but seek to enforce against the American Press as well. Since nothing could more easily destroy the thin fabric of bombast, pretense and deception upon which totalitarian control relies than a free circulation of fact, and opinion—the truth—in these countries—has naturally become the mortal enemy of the rulers.

Yet isn't it strange that these countries who boast their virtue, Spartan virtues show themselves to be delicate and supersensitive as a sickly child whenever a harsh, reproving word is spoken of them?

1845—Wilhelm Gericke, musician and conductor, at Gratz, Austria. As conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra he was the pioneer in American orchestral development and the establishment of the highest ideals in the symphonic field.

Employees Strike At Hospital In Pittsburgh Today

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, April 18—A strike of 378 employees in West Penn hospital from kitchens, maintenance and service departments was called today by the CIO-State, County and Municipal Workers, local 258, in demand for wage increases.

Pickets, mostly women, carried signs at the hospital entrances and at a tunnel leading to the nurses' home. The strike did not involve nurses, dieticians and technicians, and the strikers made no effort to stop food and milk delivery trucks providing supplies for about 500 patients.

Superintendent H. M. Eichenlaub said the hospital would be manned by "volunteers" but declined to discuss the situation until a formal announcement is made by the hospital.

Boy Scout Leaders Have Session In George Washington Junior High School

The first training session for the New Castle District Boy Scouters was held at George Washington Junior high school Wednesday evening.

There were 25 scout leaders present and they enjoyed a very instructive session on the elements of scout leadership under the direction of E. D. Hawk, scoutmaster of troop 3.

Scoutmaster J. Arthur Turek of troop 9 covered the work of a tenderfoot scout and explained the tests which a boy must pass before he can become a tenderfoot scout.

Thomas D. Jones explained the use of the scout uniform and he was assisted by Earl Hawk, a scout from troop 3.

Jim Wilkins, rural scouting chairman, from Ellwood City, gave the group instruction in knot tying.

A backward region is one where the prosecutor can't get convictions because the jury men haven't any.

THERE'S DANGER IF EXPECT- ANT MOTHER DOESN'T GIVE UP TOBACCO AND DRINKS.

Should a woman smoke cigarettes or drink liquor when she is expecting a baby?

This is a question we doctors are called upon to answer more and more these days when the cocktail hour is a regular routine in so many homes, when drinking is just part of an ordinary evening's entertainment and when women smoke as much as the men do.

Naturally I think a woman who is pregnant and goes to her doctor for advice should follow it and if he says no smoking, then she should stop. But a good many don't do that, I have found. Some just ignore the fact that smoking and drinking may have injurious effects on the child and they keep right on without asking the doctor's advice, or heeding it if he does give it.

They're like the woman who came to me not long ago and announced: "Doctor, I'm not going to stop smoking even if I am pregnant." We had a little argument over this. I tried to explain to her "no smoking during pregnancy" wasn't just an arbitrary rule old fogies thought up to make women even more uncomfortable when carrying a child.

A woman expecting a child must remember that whatever she takes into her system is eventually passed on to her child. All cigarettes contain some nicotine and it so happens that nicotine is one of our very active poisons. Nicotine certainly reduces the amount of pure air that is absorbed by the mother through the lungs and, of course, the unborn baby gets his entire oxygen supply from the blood of his mother.

Furthermore, scientific observations of the effect of smoking on pregnant women lead to the conclusion that the toxic effects of tobacco are conveyed to the infant through the smoking mother's blood. Just how harmful these effects are isn't completely established yet. Until they are, I have no hesitation in advising mothers-to-be to give up smoking. Why take a chance on injuring your baby when a little self denial will prevent it?

Smoking is also inadvisable during the period the newborn baby is being nursed. Analysis of breast-milk of smoking mothers, made by some European researchers, showed the presence of nicotine in some samples.

As for alcohol, it certainly doesn't form a necessary part of the diet for an expectant mother. In fact, it can throw her diet off-balance. It also imposes a strain upon her kidneys at the very time when her kidneys are already being subjected to abnormal strain, disposing of the wastes of the unborn baby as well as of the mother. The expectant mother is always better off without liquor.

Plan To Inspect Rural Routes In Seventh Ward Area

Local Office To Co-operate With "National Rural Mail Box Week"

Edwin McBride, superintendent of Mahoningtown post office, stated today that plans are being formed to observe "National Rural Mail Box Week" here between May 5th and 10th.

During that week a complete inspection of the rural routes serviced by the Mahoningtown office will be made.

In discussing the purpose of the week, McBride stated that an effort is made each year to have all rural patrons paint and repair their mail boxes and put them in first-class shape.

"Nothing detracts so much from the appearance of a rural property than an untidy mail box," McBride states. It takes but little time and effort to fix up mail boxes, and the results certainly warrant the extra effort.

The Great Game Of Politics

dent's poor judgment as shown in the unsound setup seems to have been canceled by his good judgment in selecting Dr. Dykstra, who, of course, shares credit with the members of his committee, one of the most effective of whom is Eugene Meyer.

AT this time the only really bad situation is that created by the soft-coal strike, which has been running now for 16 or 17 days. The railroads and plants have not yet begun to feel the pinch. Most of them had supplies on hand sufficient to carry on for two or three weeks. And most of the coal operators have a surplus on hand which has not yet been disposed of. But in another two or three weeks, with the mines idle, these surpluses will be exhausted and industry as well as transportation will feel the effect. As yet the department of labor has not certified this strike to the mediation board, and until it does Dr. Dykstra's committee cannot begin to function.

CONFERENCES between the mine owners and the union leaders continue notwithstanding the refusal of the southern operators to discuss the question of abolishing their differential and their insistence upon bringing the whole issue before the mediation board. It is possible that Mr. Steelman, negotiator for the labor department, may succeed in getting an agreement for a resumption of operations pending negotiations, on the basis of making any settlement retroactive to the date of the reopening of the mines.

ACCEPTANCE of his proposals would make possible the return of 250,000 miners in two-thirds of the soft-coal fields. It would remove the threat of stoppage from the railroads and relieve the plight of many defense plants which are now threatened with a coal shortage. One reason administration officials are trying so desperately to settle this strike without calling in the mediation board is the attitude of John L. Lewis, who is the power behind the strike. Mr. Lewis is represented as hostile to the board, none of the labor leaders thereon being of his selection. He can, he thinks, win his strike and will resent the intervention of the President's board as calculated to force the miners into an unnecessary compromise.

SHOULD the Steelman negotiations fail and the southern operators force the whole business to be turned over to the mediation board, there is the possibility that Mr. Lewis will refuse to deal with the board on the ground that its personnel is hostile to him and a fair decision cannot be expected of it. This might be an injustice to the board, but if Mr. Lewis took that position it would put the situation up to the President in an embarrassing way. Either he would have to "crack down" on the United Mine Workers, to whom he is under heavy political obligations, or he would have to send for Mr. Lewis.

THIS he would detest doing, because his dislike for Mr. Lewis is just about equal to Mr. Lewis' dislike for him. Neither ever really liked the other at any time. Their alliance was dictated by mutual interest and never had a basis of friendship. Of course, the 1940 campaign, in which Mr. Lewis supported Mr. Wilkie, intensified the feeling on both sides. It is as easy to understand why Mr. Lewis would not want to deal with the mediation board as it is to understand why Mr. Roosevelt would not want to send for Mr. Lewis. Perhaps it will not come to either.

February Egg
Production Heavy

Number Of Laying Hens Is Less, But Output Is Considerably Above Average

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, April 18.—State Secretary of Agriculture John N. Light has announced that although the number of laying hens in the state in February was 411,000 lower than one year ago, there was an increase of 6,000,000 in the total egg production.

Light credited favorable weather and liberal feeding during the month as primary reasons for the increased production, which totaled 178,000,000 eggs. Egg prices, however, tumbled to 18 per cent. Below prevailing prices of 1940 for the corresponding period.

Pennsylvania was not alone in the increased production, according to the farm secretary, who revealed that figures for the nation reflected a 12 per cent. increase with 3,281,000,000 eggs laid during the month.

The last U. S. census enumerated 106,959 stores handling apparel, or one store to each 300 families, and 560,549 food stores, or one to each 62 families.

Lawrence County Farms And Farmers

By H. R. McCulloch, County Agent

YOUNG CALVES DO BEST WHEN KEPT OFF PASTURE

Too often pasture grass is considered an ideal feed for young calves, and they are turned out as soon as the grass gets green. Large cows are better milk producers on the average than small ones. To obtain large cows, it is necessary to keep calves growing and in a thrifty condition. Many calves that are started well get their first setback when they are turned on pasture while yet too young.

Dairymen who have been most successful in growing out the young stock do not turn on pasture until the calves are approximately 12 months old. Even then they are not given a quick change from dry feed to pasture. Some grain and hay feeding is continued for several days until the heifers become accustomed to pasture grass.

Yearling heifers will make good use of pasture grass and will need no extra feed after they become accustomed to it and are eating it in large amounts. As the season advances, however, feeding conditions may become unfavorable because of dry weather. In that case, hay and some grain may be necessary to keep the heifers from becoming thin and stunted. The feed feeder will watch his heifers closely during the summer and keep them in a thrifty growing condition.

SPRAY FOR BROWN ROT

In peach orchards where cover crops or danger from erosion makes it desirable to cultivate in the spring, the application of a pink spray will help to offset the need of cultivation in the control of brown rot.

Cultivation, which usually is recommended in most cases give as good control of brown rot as a pink spray. However, where the conditions prohibit cultivating and a spray must be used, wettable sulphur or self-boiled lime sulphur (16-16-100) are suggested.

COLLEGE STUDENTS PLAN LIVESTOCK EXPOSITION

Since the middle of March, agricultural students at the Pennsylvania State College have been busily engaged in preparation for the 26th annual Little International Livestock Exposition, which is scheduled for Saturday, April 26, and open to the public.

Sponsored by the Block and Bridle Club, the show this year will be under the direction of William P. Lehnner, of Upper Montclair, New Jersey, as general manager, and Robert C. Campbell, State College, as assistant manager. Both are seniors in animal husbandry.

Showmen are industriously fitting 30 sheep, 30 beef cattle, 12 horses, and 20 swine for the exposition. Cows and other prizes as well as ribbons, will be awarded to the successful contestants.

ATHLETIC FIELDS NEED ATTENTION THIS SPRING

Many athletic fields were used hard last fall and after the last game they were not repaired by spiking, topdressing, and reseeding. Fall repairing of turf gives the best results, but if it was not done then spring repairing must be done even if poorer results are bound to follow.

A simple soil test can be made to determine the need of lime. If a ton or more to the acre is indicated, apply at once.

Fertilizer is needed to maintain a sturdy turf which will compete with weeds. A good contribution for spring use is a mixture of equal parts of 4-16-4 and soybean meal or any other good organic nitrogen fertilizer. If desired, 4-12-4 may be used in place of 4-16-4. At least 800 pounds of the mixture to the acre should be used. Most fields will benefit from 1,000 pounds or more.

A spike-disc is a very important piece of equipment in maintaining a good turf on an athletic field. Drawn several times over the area to be repaired, the spike-disc will macerate the surface soil, mix in the lime and fertilizers, and prepare a seeded without unduly damaging or disturbing the existing grass plants.

A sharp-tooth steel rake will do some good but it does not prepare a good seedbed and it will rake out the existing grass plants that you want to save.

Spring seeding often is unsatisfactory on account of weeds, insects, disease, and hot, dry weather. For that reason quick-growing grasses which will compete with weeds must be included. A good mixture for spring use is 60 per cent perennial ryegrass 25 per cent Kentucky bluegrass and 15 per cent red-top.

Rolling is necessary to firm the soil into place about the seeds and to re-establish contact with the soil of those plants which have been heaved out of the soil by the action of frost. A water-ballast roller three-fourths full of water should ordinarily be sufficient. The weight must be adjusted to the condition of the soil.

If the season is dry after seeding, water should be applied often enough to keep the surface moist until the young grass plants are well established. This may require sprinkling two or three times a day. After the turf is growing well, water about once every week or 10 days during dry periods. Soak the turf well when watering, and then hold off watering until the surface is dry and the turf shows need.

REPORT OF LAWRENCE COUNTY DAIRY HERD IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

Completing the seventh month of the testing year, March 1941, Wayne Walker and Frank Wright, testers of the Lawrence County Dairy Herd Improvement Association, report 39 herds in the association, with a total of 751 cows on test. The report shows that during the March testing period 159 cows produced over 40 pounds butterfat each, and of these, 50 produced over 50 pounds of butterfat each. One hundred and one cows produced over 1,000 pounds of milk, and 37 cows had records of over 1,200 pounds of milk.

First in the list of 10 high cows in the association was a Jersey cow owned by the Beaver County Home, Monaca, Pa., with a record of 1,476 pounds milk and 78.3 pounds butterfat.

A Jersey owned by F. W. Byers, North Beaver township came second with 1,497 pounds of milk and 73.1 pounds of butterfat, and third was a Jersey owned by J. W. Bronson, New Galilee, with 715 pounds butterfat. Other cows in this list were owned by R. R. Douglas, Enon Valley; J. C. Shoemaker, Enon Valley; John Benson, Mahoningtown; C. T. Douthitt, Darlington; Hylmede Farm, Beaver, and J. B. Elder, Volant.

The ten high cows average 1,479 pounds milk and 69.6 pounds butterfat for the 31-day testing period. The Holstein herd owned by J. B. Elder had the highest milk average in the association, 10,489 pounds milk per cow. Second in the list of five high herds in milk production was the Holstein herd owned by C. T. Douthitt, with an average of 9,630 pounds milk. The herds owned by John Bridwell, Pulaski; K. R. Brenner, Rochester, and R. N. Moore & Sons, Volant, were third, fourth and fifth respectively in milk production per cow.

The Jersey herd owned by R. N. Moore & Sons heads the list of five high herds in butterfat production with an average of 4,454 pounds butterfat. The Guernsey herd owned by John Bridwell was second, with an average of 4,308 pounds butterfat per cow. The herds owned ed by F. W. Byers; Arnold Brothers, Beaver Falls, and K. R. Brenner took third, fourth and fifth places respectively during this testing period.

During the month five cows in the association completed 305 day lactation records, having produced over 350 pounds butterfat. They are as follows:

Owner, Lauren Thompson, No. 85, registered Jersey, aged 6 years, test ran 301 test, 8,147 pounds of milk, 437 pounds butterfat.

Owner, J. P. Knoll, No. 2, purebred Holstein, aged 5 years, 305 days, 12-283 pounds milk, 419 pounds butterfat.

F. W. Byers, AR84018, registered Jersey, 305 days, 7,256 pounds milk, 270.6 pounds butterfat.

ALL WOOL PILE RUG GIVES BEST SERVICE

After the spring housecleaning, many homemakers find they need a new rug or carpet. A rug is not an article to be bought hurriedly, reminds Miss Julia Markle, home economics extension representative of Lawrence County.

One needs to know first, how to judge quality so that the best value may be had for the money spent. Second, one needs to know how to select a rug that will be most satisfying from the standpoint of design and color.

Two important quality points are: closeness of pile, and the kind of fiber used. To see how closely a rug is woven, examine the back as well as the front. Rugs with closely packed tufts will wear longer than those where sparsely pile tufts are used. Peel of the pile for thickness, but do not let length of pile be substituted for closeness.

The fiber used in a rug affects its durability. Although cotton, rayon or jute may be used, an all-wool pile is most durable. However, the durability of the wool fiber depends upon the quality of wool used. Carpet wool is different from the softer wools used in clothing.

The most durable grades for carpets are imported from mountainous regions. These wools, which vary in grade, are blended together for the pile, and consumers have to rely upon the manufacturer for quality.

The yarns in a rug may be worsted or woolen, explains Miss Markle. Worsted has longer fibers combed parallel and twisted together to make a longer wearing yarn which also is more expensive. Woolen yarns have short and long fibers mixed together and lying in all directions so that there are more short ends of fibers to work loose than from worsted yarns.

A rug pad increases the durability of a rug. Pads may be obtained in various materials and prices. It is well to see if there is a guarantee for fastness of color or of mothproofing.

Before buying a rug, a homemaker should know the size of the room, how much money she can put into a rug, know general characteristics of different weaves, and take with her samples of wall paper and draperies so that the sales person may help to select color and design.

System To Beat "Numbers" Fails

McKees Rocks Woman And Pittsburgh Man Found Guilty Of Conspiracy

Mrs. Matilda Thais, of Church avenue, McKees Rocks; and Grant Weyman, of North Side, Pittsburgh, were found guilty of conspiracy by visiting Judge Ivan J. McKendrick of Cambria county in Allegheny county court late Thursday in connection with the charges made by Michael Krempels, New Castle man.

Krempels claimed that the pair conspired with one Edward Reynolds, said to have been from New York, but believed to be a Pittsburgh resident, to mulct him of $1,200 on a scheme to beat the numbers racket, by furnishing him with the day's number ahead of time each day. The money was paid to Reynolds in Youngstown, it is stated.

Mrs. Thais and Weyman were acquitted of larceny charges, but Judge McKendrick believed they were partly responsible for the loss of money because they were present in the Thais home, when Krempels first met Reynolds in conference over the scheme.

Mr. Krempels in a statement today, said: "In explanation of above conspiracy case the true facts are that I myself did not pay a cent of my own money to the Pittsburgh people."

Two other people, one of Beaver Falls and one local party asked me to pay this money for them, and act for them, they brought these people to me. Later when the fake was found out, the FBI approached me and asked me help in prosecuting these people.

The County of Allegheny has paid me $27.40 for my service and the other two parties have also compensated me for helping them get their money back. The guilty people made restitution yesterday.

The reason I went through with this is that the law officials asked me to render this service to the public.

I am in a position to name the people who actually put the money up if anybody should doubt this statement.

COLUMBUS O—Internal strife which will not have to assume the proportions of a general revolution will cause an early break-up of the Nazi empire according to Novelist Louis Bromfield. YUGOSLAVIA TO BE PARTITIONEDAxis Conference Is Scheduled
To Determine Future
Of Country

(International News Service)
ROME, April 18.—An extremely important "personal Axis talk"—somewhere in Germany and probably at Berlin—was predicted by informed Italian quarters today.

These sources said the conference probably would be held within the next few days.

(Editor's Note: Wording of this dispatch indicates that either Premier Musolini or Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano, perhaps both, plan an early visit to Berlin to confer with Chancellor Hitler and other German officials.)

Meanwhile, the newspaper Messaggero said that definitive examination of the Yugoslav situation will occur when the country is wholly occupied by military troops and all terrorists are disarmed and mopped up.

It was expected the conference will draw up the main lines of the anticipated partitioning of Yugoslavia, since that nation now is expected to disappear from the map, leaving only a tiny Serbia, or perhaps none at all.

The Italo-German conferees also are expected to discuss proposals for settlement of the Greek problem, Greece, because of her exceptional military valor, is winning the respect of the Axis, according to informed quarters in Rome. Therefore she is expected to obtain relatively generous terms from the Axis powers if the Anglo-Greek forces are defeated.

Legislature May Continue Until Well Into June

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 18.—The present session of the General Assembly may continue into June or later, a prominent legislative leader today indicated.

House Majority Leader Leo A. Achtermann refused to forecast when the session would end but disclosed that he has had a bill drawn up to appropriate $3,500,000 for the payment of state employees after May 31. "I will introduce this bill," he said, "whenever I think the circumstances warrant."

The money would only be needed in the event the legislature failed to approve the $542,000,000 biennial budget of Gov. Arthur H. James before June 1, when the new two-year appropriation measures would ordinarily go into effect.

Legislative leaders have been aiming for adjournment since the end of May and present indications still are that the session will not be prolonged beyond that date. Achtermann's disclosure would indicate, however, that the possibility of a longer session is nevertheless present.

No Drugs—No Exercises

Men and women all over the United States are reporting remarkable results in losing weight. Many tell of reducing 50 pounds a month—and more. Their people are following the Plan of Dr. Parrish, noted physician, former Health Officer, State of New York, Surgeon-in-Chief, Medical Staff, United States Army, Editor, Lecturer.

Reducing Plan moves reducing a pleasure. A pleasure because it allows you to EAT PLENTY, requires no exercises. Absolutely safe, too, because it calls for no reducing drugs, no loss of vitality.

Here is Dr. Parrish's Napoleonic Reducing Plan EXACTLY as given by him over the air to millions for lunch take 2 teaspoonfuls of Cal-Par in a glass of tomato or pineapple juice, or any favorite beverage. Take nothing else for lunch except a cup of coffee if desired. Eat breakfast and dinner EAT AS YOU USUALLY DO. Don't cut out fatty, starchy foods—just cut down on them. ## Howls Of Delight Whoop 'Y' Circus

Indoor Show Performers
Score Last Night; Will Repeat Tonight

LAUNCH PROGRAM
ON PATRIOTIC NOTE

One of the most democratic institutions of free America—the circus—last night drew a near-capacity audience into the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium for the first-night performance of the "Y"-sponsored indoor extravaganza, the "Barn 'em In & Bail 'em Out Circus."

Tonight at 7:30 a greater crowd is expected to see the show. And tonight, like last night, spectators will thrill to William O. "Red" Williams' singing of "God Bless America" and to the military number, "America Forever," which the Midget class of the "Y" executes at the very start. And then there are "Peace Marchers" from the Cadet class.

About 350 Performers

The "Y" show, with its cast of 350 may not be a real circus, as circuses go, but for the youngsters and many adults who look forward to it, it's the genuine McCoy. Scores of parents sat with their children at last night's opening, and dished out coppers for peanuts every now and then.

Thaddeus Stevens and Rose Avenue school pupils this year play an important role in the program—both have hands to represent them.

Ringmaster—and a good one—is Henry T. MacNicholas, district secretary of the Pennsylvania Y. M. C. A. organization in this section, and for years a staff member of the local association.

Physical Director William Winter is supervising the big circus job assisted by his local corps of Key Men's club members. That club headed by Lee "Newt" Campbell, acts as the sponsor. Proceeds will help buy new "Y" physical department equipment.

Your Money's Worth, Wow!

The 20-act program follows:

Act 2. Peace Marchers—Cadet class; Sharpshooters' Deluxe—Clowns.

DAILY DOZEN

(From The Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

Comparatively few children die as the direct result of measles.

But many deaths occur from complications arising from measles.

Pneumonia, bronchitis and abscessed ears may follow measles.

Children with measles should be treated as sick children.

They should be kept in bed under supervision of a physician.

Measles is transmitted by discharges from nose and throat.

First symptoms are reddened eyes, light fever and cough as in a cold.

The red rash of measles seldom appears before the fourth day.

Measles is extremely contagious and spreads rapidly.

Children should not be exposed to others who have been exposed.

Children should not be sent to school if they are not well.

Don't say "It's only measles,"—measles is a serious disease.

Most of us are secretly humble. Going under or coming out of the ether, many confess their meanness but nobody brags.

Meeting Thursday Night—
Hotel In Good Shape

Directors were elected for the coming year Thursday night when the stockholders of the New Castle Hotel Company, operating the Castleton, held their annual meeting. P. J. Mr. Love was named temporary chairman and J. Preston Flaherty named temporary secretary. The annual report of the hotel was discussed briefly and Ivor V. Davis spoke briefly. In his remarks Mr. Davis paid a tribute to the president, Mr. Flaherty's genius in putting the hotel on its present well organized basis. Mr. Davis also complimented Arnold J. Bischoff, manager of The Castleton for the manner in which the hotel has been conducted since Mr. Bischoff took charge.

The stockholders decided to reduce the number of directors from 12 to 11 and in the election named only eleven. They are, M. J. Donnelly, P. J. Flaherty, T. H. Hartman, A. C. Hoyt, C. H. Johnson, Jr., R. C. Love, J. K. Love, F. L. Rentz, George T. Weingartner, F. B. Offutt and J. Preston Flaherty.

Frontiers Of France Are Well Guarded

ing of this propaganda, results have not been marked yet, although some ill-feeling now begins to show. There is something indescribably sickening about this deliberate heavy-footed effort to instill hate. But you find it on all sides in Paris. It strikes you more than the general deadness of the city, or the incongruousness of hearing German and seeing Germans everywhere. I find it throughout the notes I jotted down while there:

Some Notes Jotted Down

First metro ride. . . Twelve Germans in a car, all standing. . . Germaine says they always stand as long as any woman is not seated. Says this impresses Paris women, even against their will. It's the little things that count. . . must admit most of them look good. Fit. Tough. Many look like Americans. Unusually handsome major with decorations. . . Private who looks like Bruno Richard Hauptmann. . . Paul had same idea, grinned, "eighty million Hauptmanns."

The awful posters at every station. Some picture horrible caricatures of Jews, Freemasons, clutches of bags of loot with glaring captions: "Enough! Enough!" Other green posters advertising jobs for French metallurgists in Germany: "Do you want to remain unemployed and starve or . . . come to Germany where you will be treated as one of family. . . same pay as German workman. . . vacations in France. . . you can send home 1,500 to 2,400 francs per month."

Confirmed story of Paris policeman. . . was roughly shoved for not walking between rails at intersection. In quick reflex turned and struck Nazi soldier. Next morning posters announced his execution. Minor demonstrations. It's quick death for anyone striking soldier. Louis Harl and secretary working in his office. . . bundled in overcoats and mufflers, with feeble electric heater by desk. . . office been so cold throughout winter believes it will never thaw out. . . Somewhat thunderstruck when learned we'd come up without papers.

Same Tactics

Press hammering away at Hachette again today. . . Astonishing hate campaign. . . Safe bet company won't last long under that sort of bludgeoning, probably should have sold out to Germans in first place. . . News of Indo China surrender played up as triumph of peace policy, blow against England, instead of beginning of disintegration French empire. . . Henry Have gets big play with his indignant blarney from Washington, "It's crime France should have to beg her head. . . Paris press almost uniform hammers daily against England. . . leads American news with statements Wheeler, isolationists. . . people here have no idea what's going on at home. . . At Louis' bar caused sensations when told them little first hand news from America. They call the Germans "potato bugs" and "Fritz" but not too loud. Twenty-franc fine if overheard. . . Francoise says the young bucks were "tres correct" at first, but getting a little more forward now. . . "They don't hesitate accost you now, 'Ahn moment, fraulein', take you by arm' . . . much social disease in hospitals."

Absence Of Traffic

These Nazi girls won't win any beauty prizes. . . Parisiennes laugh at them in their gray uniforms, unmadeup faces. . . no love lost between Parisiennes and frauleins. . . Sidewalk cafe at Vtel crowded as usual. . . Ranks of Poules parading by somewhat diminished, but few old familiar faces. . . Could have fired rifle down Champs-Elysee this noon without hitting a car. . .

absence traffic makes city seem even more grave-like. . . Big-domed new, charcoal-gas autobuses. . . can't get in Crillon, Ritz, other big hotels. . . horse carriages, but very expensive. . . everybody travels by metro or bike.

Food excellent at Francis. . . you can get what you want if you can pay for it. That company of troops drilling in vacant lot at Passy. . . they look good. . . Pierre says they work like this all the time all over town. . . no loafing, keep fit. Sad visit Mrs. T. . . One son killed in action, other in German prison camp. . . all alone, heatless flat. . .

Same red-headed singer in that Champs Elysees Boite. . . only she's singing, coyly, cutely, songs in German where a year ago she was singing coyly, cutely, songs in English. . . usual dopy collection in place. . . few German soldiers, well-behaved, sitting with French girls. . . crowd civilians noisy, annoying. . . left early for fear incident and need show papers. Everybody scuttles in order avoid being caught on streets after midnight curfew. When see have stayed too late, only thing to do is remain until daylight in nightclub. The bill comes high that way. Patronize Maxims if you want special consideration. You get but, and everything else there without tickets. If you are a regular customer, you can get a special pass to circulate the streets after hours for "urgent professional reasons." Mostly Germans there and a few wealthy scyphants. Paris in the spring of 1941, is a place you are not reluctant to leave.

Italian Oil Well Damaged

(International News Service) BUDAPEST, April 18.—Destruction of an important Italian-owned oil well in Rumania was reported today in dispatches which quoted an official Rumanian government communique that the fire which caused the loss was "accidental."

It was reported also that the Rumanian food situation has become critical with sale of coffee forbidden and sugar so strictly rationed that court martial on sabotage charges awaits grocers selling more than the rationed allotment.

It's your friend's drinking that seems dangerous. You know liquor can't hurt a fine strong guy like you.

More Government Than Ever In History; Babson Still Optimist

By ROGER W. BABSON
Copyright—1941—Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.

NEW YORK, April 18—If any reader believes that the administration has set aside its social reforms he is sadly mistaken. Washington may give the impression that it is working hand in hand with manufacturers on the defense program. Certainly, we have a right to expect that. In this period of national emergency personal ambitions would be set aside. Our leaders in Washington surely should bury the hatchet of hate for business. If anything will save England, Canada, and this country, it will be an "all out" schedule of production through the co-operation of the administration and our business leaders. For a year or more, business has forgotten itself in an attempt to back up the administration. Unfortunately, the New Dealers have not yet seen fit to relieve the pressure on business.

Washington Grows Bigger

In my several trips to the capital, I have been greatly impressed with the bureaucracy that is growing up there. It is bigger than anything this country has ever seen and shows no sign of slackening off. Of course, much of this is necessary for national defense. The Army and Navy departments are justified in their growth; but too much of the increased personnel of other government departments has been unsuccessfully developed under the smoke screen of national defense. Readers who can possibly do so should visit Washington and see and hear what is going on there.

Our present national emergency is a great gift to the New Dealers who, while outwardly quiet, are by no means asleep at the switch. If they had their way I fear they would kick the dollar-a-year businessmen out of Washington and take over their work. The president is too wise to permit this. Such an act would slow up much of the practical defense work which, in spite of everything, is moving along. It would also bring into the open the personal jealousies, the continual bids for power, and the real program of the old New Dealers who still have the president's ear. The defense program appears to have taken first place in the heart and mind of Washington; but it is being used by a small group as a means of promoting further governmental power over business.

Methods Of Control

Capital and labor have always had their difficulties and always will. This is really a healthy state. Our high standards of living are due much to the efforts of certain intelligent and unselfish labor leaders. On the other hand, management usually is willing to meet the demands of employees halfway. Left alone, sensible and honest leaders of both sides could settle their difficulties. Neither side needs nor wants government interference in settling wage disputes and in establishing policies. The administration, however, is being forced by irresponsible radicals to take an increasingly active part in the disputes between management and labor. If this keeps on increasing, it will end by the government outlawing strikes and putting both employers and workers into uniforms, at least for the period of the national emergency.

Bankers and investors have so long been subject to controls that they are more hardened to them than are manufacturers and other businessmen. Most businessmen, however, are scared stiff. It is by no means the scareheads from abroad that are keeping the stock market stagnant. Most of Hitler's moves, including any spring drive against England, have already been discounted. It is fear by businessmen of further internal domestic regulations and taxes which paralyzes markets and slows up defense work.

A Planned Production

Once the New Dealers were talking about a planned economy. This included fixing prices for farmers, a redistribution of property, and many other broadly socialistic ideas. Fortunately for the country, the Roosevelt administration has thus far never quite got the machinery set up to accomplish this. Now they have it given to them on a silver platter in the form of the defense program. The new term for our coming economic order is planned production! Through priority controls alone, the government can plan industry's entire activity. In World War No. 1, the War Industries Board and other agencies functioned independently of all politics. Today, the program is largely directed and controlled by the administration's bureaucracy. No organization, except the charitable ones like the Red Cross, functions free of red tape. Yet, I have confidence this will cure itself if you voters will only write your congressman how you feel. I am still bullish on the United States. President Roosevelt is getting wiser as he becomes older. Even New Dealers leave Washington when some New York law firm offers them more money! Honesty, hard work, and thrift will make you succeed whoever runs Washington.

More than 380,000 establishments are engaged in selling automobiles, gasoline, and accessories, and automobile service to the American public. Annual receipts aggregate $9,000,000,000, according to the Census.

College Students To Study Government

Representatives of State Schools Will Conduct Conference At Harrisburg

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, April 18—The Intercollegiate conference on government will get under way at Harrisburg April 23 with representatives of more than 40 Pennsylvania colleges and universities in attendance.

Founded in 1933 to provide students of government a means by which they could put their class room information to practical use, the conference will last for three days while students and faculty advisors dramatize the various phases of governmental activity.

The sessions are identical with the actual governmental bodies which delegates emulate and that includes lobbying, compromise and political dealings which are found at any national meeting of politicians.

Ford Plant Is Being Patrolled

Report Fights Develop In Foundry—No Details Given On Trouble

(International News Service) DETROIT, April 18.—Regularly assigned police patrolled the 1200-acre Rouge plant of the Ford Motor Company amid charges by the United Automobile Workers Union C.I.O. that three of its members were injured today in fights which broke out in the foundry, less than a week after the company reopened after a 10-day strike by the union.

A union spokesman, in charging the three men were beaten, asserted that between 3,000 and 4,000 men came into the foundry of the company during the night and hindered the progress of union men as the latter reported for work.

A spokesman for the motor company said the plant was operating as usual and it had no information concerning the alleged beatings.

Dr. Morris Raskin, a union doctor, said he treated Elin Garin and Lymund Galka. He said it was necessary to take several stitches in the lips of Garin. Stanley Plewa allegedly suffered head injuries when he was struck from behind as he punched the time clock.

The company has been calling its 85,000 workers back to their benches to work on $155,000,000 in defense orders with indications that full production would be attained again next week.

FALSE ALARM.

City firemen were called to Jefferson and Maitland streets at 10:40 o'clock Thursday evening, by a false alarm from Box 85.

One-Armed Youth Is Crack Athlete And Star Student

(International News Service) ONAWA, Ia., April 18.—When student grades are posted at Onawa Junior High school each month a big "A" is placed after the name of Frank Lockwood, 16, star half mile runner, basketball player, cornetist and typist.

That might not be unusual except that when Frank was only 8 he fell out of a tree and so injured his right arm it had to be amputated.

He immediately learned to eat, dress, and write with his left hand. Entering Junior High school he took up manual training and made several pieces of furniture—the equal of any classmates. He learned touch typing, too.

Seeing a band leader play the cornet with the left hand and direct with the right, Frank determined to learn the instrument.

The same spirit moved him in going out for track and basketball. His next objective is to become a certified public accountant.

Says Frank: "I've got all my punch in one hand and 'she's a wow. That CPA degree is just as good as mine now."

Peasants and other little people are easily terrified but what of it? All of us are scared if somebody else is driving.

(International News Service) HOLLYWOOD, April 18.—In the presence of 900 guests, Deanna Durbin, the 19-year-old singing film star, will be married tonight in Hollywood to Vaughn Paul, young film executive.

There will be several thousand uninvited guests outside the Wilshire Boulevard Methodist Episcopal church, however, all eager to get a glimpse of the pretty young actress and the scores of film celebrities expected to attend the wedding.

after the actress celebrated her 19th birthday.

A gala reception will follow the wedding at the Beverly Wilshire hotel.

Miss Durbin picked tonight as the date of her wedding because it was the 33rd anniversary of her parents' wedding.

Dr. Willis Martin, pastor of the church, will officiate. Mrs. Clarence Heckman, Miss Durbin's sister, will be matron of honor, and Paul's half-brother, Elwood Bredell, will be best man.

Sales Tax Still Meets Opposition From President

Roosevelt Plans To Make Statement Soon On New Tax Program

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Expressing continued opposition to a sales tax, President Roosevelt said today he would make a tax statement soon to the nation outlining the administration's drive to raise an additional $300,000,000 annually in emergency defense revenue.

The president said he was undecided as to how or when he would make the statement.

In response to press conference questions, the president said he did not have the faintest idea of the form the new revenue bill would take. He pointed out that congressional leaders were just beginning to discuss the problem.

Asked for a statement on his position regarding a sales tax, Mr. Roosevelt said it had not changed—that he did not care very much for this form of levy.

day authorities there received word he had reached New York, was with his father and would return to the institution next week, police reported.

A. M. Downs today was given a permit by the city bureau of building to remodel a dwelling at 837 Croton avenue.

Traffic Commissioner Thomas Jones today and other traffic police were in all uptown sections keeping traffic moving and showing courtesy to those here in attendance at the Pennsylvania Forensic and Music league.

Police activities here during the past several weeks have been almost as quiet as a church mouse. There has been no major crimes. Only a few arrests have been made for disorderly conduct or intoxication.

Councilman Joseph D. Alexander asserted today that every effort is under way to make Sylvan Heights golf course and Cascade Park attractive to players and visitors this summer.

Directors of Safety D. O. Davies declared today he has ordered officers to arrest any person caught throwing rubbish or tin cans in vacant lots. He, as safety director, is also head of the health bureau.

The sweeper which has been given a new broom, will operate after midnight tonight providing it does not rain hard. The street department had hoped for a rain which would augment their hosing of streets.

Hospital Strike Is Outlawed By Court Action

Injunction Granted Halts Picketing Of Employees At Pittsburgh Hospital

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, April 18.—In one of the most far-reaching temporary injunctions in labor history, Judge Frank P. Patterson today outlawed a strike of 378 service employees at Pittsburgh's West Penn hospital.

His action was based on the ground that the institution is part of the state government.

At the same time the jurist's restraining order against the C.I.O.-State, County and Municipal Workers, Local 255, ruled that interviews for publication in newspapers that would encourage abandonment of employment in the hospital were barred.

The temporary injunction banned picketing which had begun as the strikers pressed for higher wages. With it were outlawed all possible tactics ordinarily associated with conduct of a strike.

NAVY WARNS WORKERS.
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON—Printed at the bottom of each page of the new telephone directory furnished to Washington employees of the navy department are warnings that "walls have ears," "careless talk costs lives" and "beware of inquisitive friends."

FIXED SALARY
(International News Service)
SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—City Purchasing Agent C. V. Nunn knows it's no use asking for a raise. On the other hand, he knows the city isn't likely to cut his pay. The reason is that it would cost the municipality about $11,000 just to change Nunn's salary a cent either way. That's because his salary of $200 monthly is stipulated in the city charter, and an election would be necessary to change the figure.

HIS FIRST CHOWDER.
(International News Service)
BARNSTABLE, Mass.—A resident of Main street, about 20 feet from the ocean's high tide level all his life, Peter Karnas, 18, never tasted clam chowder until invited to supper at the home of a friend.

State Asked To Furnish 4,062 New Draftees

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, April 18.—The U. S. Army Third Corp authorities called on Pennsylvania today to furnish an additional 4,062 draftees between May 12 and 20 at five induction centers throughout the state.

The requisition listed 3,828 white men and 234 Negroes, and brings to 31,840 the total number of Pennsylvanians called under the selective service act to date.

The men will be summoned to appear at induction centers in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Wilkes-Barre, Harrisburg and Altoona.

Let's not worry about incompetents in the new army. The men in charge are as patriotic and probably know as much as columnists.

Sewing Projects
Will Continue

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, April 18.-Gov. Arthur H. James announced he had authorized the continuance for a 30-day period of the W. P. A. sewing projects employing 12,000 women. They were to expire on Saturday.

Two months ago, when the W. P. A. announced the imminent discontinuance of the projects on the sponsorship ratio under which they had operated for several years, Governor James agreed to a two-month trial period at an increased rate of payment by the state.

The new extension is intended to provide further opportunity for compilation and checking of costs and contributions, said the governor.

Event On April 22

All New Castle today was invited to the big card party and dance which the Philoptochos society of St. George's Greek Orthodox church will sponsor in the Cathedral Tuesday evening, April 22.

Mrs. William Lestas, chairman of the hard-working committees, formally invited everybody this way: "We want you all to come. We've arranged a good program, and there'll be lots of fun. We hope, through the proceeds, to complete New Castle's quota in the Greek relief fund."

Ladies of St. George's church, East Reynolds street, are working shoulder to shoulder for the affair. And so are the ladies of the British War Relief and the Polish Relief units. The latter will have displays at the party.

Mrs. Lestas stressed that "we're receiving the co-operation of all those groups, and we certainly appreciate it." All the money collected, she emphasized, will go to help Greece's courageous people in her hour of need. She said many are now living in cellars, that hospitals are overcrowded and that conditions daily grow more pitiful.

Serving with Mrs. Lestas, the chairman, the following committee heads:

Steve Kakos, vice chairman; Mrs. John Mitsos, treasurer; Mrs. Frank Anderson, secretary; Miss Erma Staful, committee secretary; Angelo Stevas, tickets; Peter Brown, publicity; Mrs. George Papazachos, bingo; Mrs. James Passias, Mrs. Frank Anderson; Mrs. Sam Kolunie, booths; Mrs. Andrew Koginis, cards; Miss Dana Christ, Evzones; Speer Martin, dance; Angelo Lucas, decorations; Mrs. Pete Karidis, prizes; Mrs. George Karidis, needlework, and Mrs. Ann Stevas, program.

AMERICANS LIKE CHEESE

(International News Service) WASHINGTON.—Americans are eating more cheese, E. E. Vial of the Department of Agriculture said recently. Total consumption increased 36 percent during the past decade—from 567,592,000 pounds in 1930 to 770,000,000 pounds in 1939. Most of the increase was in consumption of American or cheddar cheese—from 67.5 per cent of the total in 1930 to 72.5 per cent of the total in 1939.

Experts say America has over eight billion barrels of oil in reserve. Well, we'll probably have enough troubled waters to need it.

Those elected are: president, Mrs. Glen Carpenter, First, New Castle; first vice president, Mrs. H. Parker Smith, Aliquippa; second vice president, Mrs. J. C. Fulton, Mountville and Portersville; recording secretary, Mrs. Joseph Young, Ellwood City; corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. R. Bruce, Rochester; treasurer, Mrs. John W. Young, New Brighton; thank offering secretary, Mrs. C. D. McCoy, Rochester; young women's secretary, Mrs. L. D. Barnhart, Ellwood City; junior secretary, Miss Nannie Kelso, New Galilee; literature secretary, Mrs. H. C. Perrott, Beaver Falls; temperance and reform secretary, Mrs. Margaret Kennedy, Ellwood City; statistics and efficiency secretary, Mrs. Thomas Graham, Ambridge; prayer group secretary, Mrs. R. W. McGranahan, Beaver; association secretary, Mrs. H. B. Prummer, Beaver Falls. Committees were appointed at this time, also.

Chief addresses of the day were delivered by Rev. J. Calvin Rose, pastor of the Second U. P. church, New Castle, and Miss Martha Baird, a teacher at the Frenchburg, Ky., mission school. Mr. Rose spoke at the morning session in a most interesting manner on "The Bowerly Mission". Miss Baird, who was accompanied by Miss Kester, another teacher at Frenchburg school, spoke in the afternoon on "Our Frenchburg School and Hospital". Her talk proved most enlightening and was well received by those in attendance. In the shower for Frenchburg hospital which followed, over three hundred dollars was received. The dedicatory prayer was given by Mrs. George Hardin of Aliquippa.

Roll was called by congregations during the morning and after Rev. Rose's address, prayer was led by Mrs. C. R. Thayer, Third, New Castle, and announcements were made.

Following a president's conference at one o'clock, with Mrs. Carpenter in charge, a memorial service was held, conducted by Miss Nannie Kelso of Rocky Springs. Special mention was made at this time of Miss Louella McKee of Beaver, who had served as treasurer for 35 years, and who passed away during the past year. At the business session, the women voted on a revised constitution.

Other features of the afternoon session were music by Mrs. Muryl Boyd, First, New Castle, and a missionary pageant, "Information Please", presented by the Jean Hill Williamson Missionary Society, Highland U. P. church. After the reports of the tellers and place committee, Dr. S. E. Irvine, host pastor, pronounced the benediction.

This was one of the most successful conferences held by the women of Beaver Valley Presbytery with 356 women registered for the day.

The group's missionaries are Miss Margaret Murdoch of Sangla Hill, India, and Miss Jeanette L. McCrory of Pullman, Washington.

By PAT ROBINSON
(International News Service Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, April 18.—What does it mean? We're all assured that the Reds and Dodgers would step right out from the game and battle each other all the way down to the pennant wire?
We surely were. Well, what's happened? Today we wind those world champion Reds sharing the National League basement with the horrible Dodgers and the wailing among the good burghers of Cincinnati must be as sorrowful as the howling of the embittered fans along the sweet-scented Gowanus.
But, as an ancient sage once remarked, it's little surprises like that which serve to try men's souls to say nothing of keeping fans stirred up and the turnstiles clicking.
There is too much inherent class in both Reds and Dodgers for them to remain in the doldrums and it won't be long before they will be up where they belong.

Gomez In Shape
Meanwhile, it is a pleasure to report the comeback of one of the finest fellows in baseball. We mean Lefty Gomez, the wise-cracking southpaw of the Yankees. Lefty was unveiled for the first time yesterday against the Athletics and there was a feeling of tenseness everywhere from the bleachers to the dugouts.
Everybody knew that Lefty was on the spot. If he failed, he was thru as a major leaguer. If he made good, well, Joe McCarthy may have another 20-game winner.
Lefty hasn't been worth much to the Yanks for two years because of a lame back. But he had plenty yesterday as he gave the A's only three hits up to the ninth and breezed in, 9 to 4.

You have heard that old gag about Babe Herman, the old Dodger outfielder being hit on the head by a fly ball? Well, we never saw that happen to Babe but it actually did.

Louis And Conn To Meet In June

Mike Jacobs Will Save Lou Nova For Louis In September, Thinks Louis Will Beat Conn

ZIVIC-KAPLAN BATTLE TONIGHT

By LAWTON CARVER
International News Service Sports Editor
NEW YORK, April 18.—If we can read the mind of a man who is removed from our presence by six full hours as an automobile flies, Promoter Mike Jacobs is stalling for the moment in an attempt to figure his way out of the heavyweight championship muddle which suddenly has developed. He fled from New York to Boston ostensibly to sit in on tonight's welterweight bout between Fritz Zivic and Mike Kaplan, but also to get away from the yammering among heavyweight challengers until he can see which way the wind blows.

Favors June Bout.
We seem to be able to hear Jacobs thinking all the way from Boston today, as he sits around there and the gist of his cerebration would be about like this:

"I've got to make the best possible match I can for Joe Louis in June and yet take as little chance as possible on getting him knocked off before say, next fall, meantime letting him get his whack at all comers. So here is what I'll do—"

With that, he changes his mind back and forth at the rate of 10 times an hour, but from what could be gathered around here today, the program still is going to be Billy Conn against Louis in June because that one will draw more money with less risk to the champion than a Lou Nova bout.

Louis-Nova In Fall.
The latter will be saved until the fall by which time Louis will have dusted off all opposition. Then if Nova wins Louis won't suffer any chagrin over having missed any purses.

We mentioned this line of reasoning based on our long distance mind-reading to Ray Carlin, Nova's manager, and he immediately said that as far as he could figure out without reading anybody's mind what he suggests here is exactly what is going to happen.

"The truth of it is, of course," Carlin said, "the Louis crowd is ducking Nova, until all other purses have been grabbed. We've been offered the September shot, but I still can't see why Nova and Conn shouldn't meet first, then the winner take on Louis and make it a legitimate heavyweight challenge. "Buddy Baer and Abe Simon? Oh, sure, they'll meet Louis in the next few weeks, but I'm not worrying about them beating Louis. Nova is the one man around now with a chance to do that."

Meets Baer Next.
Louis will defend his championship against Buddy Baer in Washington on May 23. Contracts for the bout, scheduled for 15 rounds, were signed last night.

In reply to that, Jimmy Johnston, manager of Simon, let loose with a verbal and written blast in which he demanded that Simon be given a return match with Louis at once and if not, why not?
He sent a telegram to the New York boxing commission asking the commission to inform the press why a Louis-Conn or a Louis-Nova bout should be allowed in this state, then went on to say:
"The public should be given an opportunity to see a worthy contender, a college man, born and bred in New York, who already has given Joe Louis his hardest fight, the Jewish heavyweight sensation, Abe Simon." Abe Simon was in big capitals.

Factor Girls At East Liverpool

The Factor girls basketball team will go to East Liverpool tonight to compete in the National girls tournament. The locals are slated to battle the Chester, West Virginia girls teams in the opening of the tourney at 8 o'clock.
Last year the Factor girls set a world's record in the East Liverpool tourney by playing four games in 18 hours. Some of the greatest girl basketball teams in the country will compete in the tourney starting tonight.

The Factor girls have had a very successful season to date and are hopeful of gaining more laurels at the tourney.

TOD COLE TO BOX REALE IN ELLWOOD RING

Billy Reale of this city and Tod Cole of Brownsville, middleweights, who fought a stirring battle with the New Castle fighter on the losing end will box in the main bout in Ellwood City, Tuesday night, April 22.
Reale hopes to redeem himself, he stated today.

Marion Klingensmith, of Brownsville, will box Johnny Como in the semi-final and Roy Crews, Ellwood City, will box Pete Misto, of Youngstown, in a preliminary. Crews put up a good fight against Al Sayers recently.

Frankie Moran of New Castle may return to the ring if he can reach condition desired and take on Tommy Saunders of Tiltonville, O., a newcomer to this section and Russell Baxter of this city will box Butch Junack of Aliquippa.

Baby Retardo, an Ellwood City lightweight, who has been making good will box Jimmy Eade of Vestaburg and Les Leasure of this city will meet Elmer Preston of Aliquippa. Tony Arkes of Ellwood City will oppose Lou Buccell of Campbell in the opening of eight bouts.

WEST PITTSBURG TEAM WILL MEET

Manager Danny DeGenova has called a meeting of the West Pittsburgh baseball team for Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the West Pittsburgh athletic club rooms.

CATCHER FRANKS GOES TO ROYALS

Catcher Herman Franks has been obtained by the Montreal Royals from the Brooklyn Dodgers on option.
Herman inaugurated the International League season by emitting a two-run homer against Newark, Thursday.

One sport note tacked on to another and whatever happened to holdout "Hank" Leibert?

Related speckled beauty tales: ... With the trout season here to stay for a while, "Rosey" White, Lawrence-Mercer counties fish warden, uncorks a few niblets gleaned during the opening of the speckled beauty season. Robert Dicks, listed as a State street resident, gets the brass ring for recording the initial catch. Dicks dropped a trout into his creel at 12:05 a. m. Tuesday, five minutes after the green light was flashed.

Pat Patterson, Union Township High's basketball mentor and easily one of the county's foremost sportsmen, finished second. At 12:10 a. m., Patterson had lifted out two trout. White reports that fishermen were hampered by low-clear water. H. N. Drio, secretary of the Lawrence County Sportsmen's Association, wasn't "blanked." Drio caught four beauties beyond New Wilmington.

Baseball: A reader wants to know how come "Bill" Dietrich was allowed to continue pitching for Chicago despite the fact that he had had a pinch runner in the second inning of the Cleveland game on opening day. Roger Peckinpaugh, Cleveland manager, permitted Dietrich to rest his injured shoulder and then continue. In passing, it might be added that it was a noble deed on Peck's part, an incident that won the plaudits of the diamond world.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Penn State varsity teams had a good winter. The teams won 70 of 102 events, tying two and losing 30.

The Lions competed in 10 varsity and six freshman events. The Yearlings had short schedules.

If it rains today it may spoil trout fishing this evening and Saturday, but will bring up the streams. Ed Beetem will play an iron-man role in the track and field meet at Princeton Saturday. He will put the shot, throw the discus and sling the hammer as the Quakers engage Navy, Columbia and Princeton.

Johnny Ray asserted in Pittsburgh today should Joe Louis fight Abe Simon or Buddy Baer prior to his fighting Billy Conn, Ray will cancel Conn's proposed fight with the champion. Fritz Zivic and Mike Kaplan fight an overweight match in Boston tonight and Fritz is in for a rough battle although most fans believe Zivic will win.

Sankey Memorial Is Dedicated At Providence Church

Congregation Entertained At Dinner By Y. P. Class At Impressive Event

ELLWOOD CITY, April 18.—"In memory of a useful life, we all loved" characterized a fitting and most impressive memorial and dedication service held on Thursday night at the Providence Baptist church, North Sewickley, in honor of the late Clinton E. Sankey.

The occasion was doubly significant because it also marked the birthday anniversary of Mr. Sankey.

The most enjoyable event for the entire congregation was arranged by members of the Young People's Bible class and they handled the details in a most creditable manner.

The event began with the serving of a delicious chicken dinner at long tables decorated with Easter flowers and novel candle favors.

William Fleeson, superintendent of the Sunday school, ably filled the roll of toastmaster. Patriotic singing featured the dinner hour, and a most humorous reading, "How A Girl Cooks", was given by Miss Ruth Wilcox.

The formal program began with laudatory remarks concerning the life of Mr. Sankey, who was superintendent of the Sunday school for 23 years, by S. G. Hazen, representing the deacons, and Roy McDanel and G. N. Hazen, representing the trustees. Mrs. Jane Cox gave the opening prayer.

Mrs. Howard Syphrit then read a most interesting biography of Mr. Sankey after which the group sang his favorite song, "I Have Found A Friend". The Sankey Memorial W. C. T. U. attended in a body and a talk on their work was given by the president, Mrs. Clarence Yahn.

Rev. J. R. Routledge told of the inspiration and loyalty always shown by the honored one in a memorial talk.

High-lighting the celebration was the dedication of a fireplace in the lovely new basement of the church in memory of Mr. Sankey, who was the instigator of the basement project and whose enthusiasm and aid made it possible.

Reminiscing over a lifelong friendship with Mr. Sankey, the dedication address was given by Mrs. Lawrence Zeigler in a feeling manner. J. Lester Hazen, undraped the plaque above the fireplace bearing the memorial and the dedicatory prayer was offered by Rev. J. R. Routledge.

Beautiful spring flowers adorned the fireplace, one bouquet being the gift of the Pitzer family, relatives of Mr. Sankey.

The modern church basement, complete with a beautiful fire place and full equipped kitchen, is a splendid improvement to the church and the Young People's class, who worked long and hard to make it possible, are being commended for their successful efforts.

Keith Hazen served as chairman of the basement project committee.

Last night's program was arranged by Mrs. Howard Syphrit and the dinner was supervised by Mrs. J. Lester Hazen and they received the full cooperation of the entire class.

No Agreement On Contract As Yet

Council And Power Company Still Stalemated On New Contract

ELLWOOD CITY, April 18.—Apparently stalemated is the contract for electric current rates for the boro, since a conference held last night by council as a committee, their special electrical engineer, Mr. Russell, and Louis B. Round, representative of the Pennsylvania Power company failed to end with a satisfactory agreement between the boro and the company. Negotiations between the company and the boro have been under discussion for several months.

The boro employed a special engineer to make a study of the contract and rates and upon his advice the boro has refused to accept the agreement extended by the company.

By means of a chart, Mr. Round explained at last night's meeting the concessions that the company would make. The concessions amounted to $77,663 based over a period of ten years. Various councilmen and the engineer pointed out that conditions might change greatly in the next ten years and that the concessions they made were only assumed.

Of the total $77,663, some $37,000 of the amount was for assumed current for the new defense housing project. Mr. Round maintains that the company has the charter right to provide current for that district, although it was recently annexed into the boro and he said that unless amicable negotiations between the two parties is reached, the company will protect their rights by law. The contractor desires the use of current by next Monday and it is understood that the boro is building up their line to the limit of their territory and that the contractor will then build his own line to the boro line with the meter to be placed inside Ellwood's territory.

The engineer employed by the boro is said to recommend the building of a city plant unless the company offers further reduction in their rates. It is very unlikely that the boro will consider building a plant.

One of the contentions of the boro is that the company supplies current for the National Tube company and other commercial plants at a lower rate than they bill the boro. By means of charts, Mr. Round showed that the Tube Mill used approximately three times as much current as the boro; and therefore, is entitled to a lower rate.

Local teachers will be on hand to help in any way they are needed.

This dash of rain will do a great deal in helping to remove the dust and dirt that has accumulated in the streets . . . the dirt that has not been picked up by the street sweeper or men with brooms . . . some streets have been washed but this rain will do the most good.

Golf season is here . . . the lads who frequent the courses are getting their work in shape so they can spend every spare moment on the fairways (or rough) . . . they each have an idea they are going to do better this season than last season. Their putting will be better because they have been reading up on the subject all winter . . . the living room carpet is worn thin from their practicing. The "little women" of these golfers are sure glad spring and warm weather is here . . . it will give them a chance to clean up the house and be free of golf clubs until fall . . . because the men either keep the clubs at their Golf Club or in the trunk of the car. Have them handy in their motto, one never knows when the opportunity will arise.

Have you seen James M. Smith's magnolia tree? Mr. Smith lives on Highland avenue in the 1900 block . . . it is fixed up so that it is more beautiful at night than in the daytime . . . electric lights spot it for a few hours each evening . . . last year we thought it was beautiful but it can't come near to the beauty of this spring. This is a "must" on your sightseeing trips about the city.

Don't forget the classified ads . . . they are great little helpers at all seasons of the year. Read them often and they will tell you secrets.

Support Develops After Opening—Losses Are Only Fractional

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 18.—The stock market continued its downtrend today, depressed by unsettling foreign and domestic developments.

The list was lower from the start, with losses running to a point and declines were cut but rallying power was limited. A few issues scored net gains on the day.

Most steels were down from the start. Losses were fractional. U. S. Steel showed support and regained most of an early loss.

Allied was down a point in chemicals. Union Carbide and Dow Chemical gained as much. DuPont was lower.

Johns Manville dropped over a point, and Liggett & Myers B. Eastman Kodak and American Telephone were weak.

Motors were lower. Most rails and utilities gave fractional ground. Aviations and coppers were irregular. Oils were quiet.
